

Step 4: Expanding Sentences 1

Introduction

Add the most appropriate co-ordinating conjunction to these sentences.

I knew dad was tired _____ I let him rest.

I love playing in the water _____ I can't swim.

I enjoy eating bananas _____ strawberries.

We can go swimming _____ go to the cinema.

and

so

but

or

Introduction

Add the most appropriate co-ordinating conjunction to these sentences.

I knew dad was tired so I let him rest.

I love playing in the water but I can't swim.

I enjoy eating bananas and strawberries.

We can go swimming or go to the cinema.

and

so

but

or

Varied Fluency 1

Circle the word below that is a conjunction.

run

small

and

Varied Fluency 1

Circle the word below that is a conjunction.

run

small

and

Varied Fluency 2

Underline the conjunction in the sentence below.

The knight rode all day so he was ready for the huge battle ahead of him.

Varied Fluency 2

Underline the conjunction in the sentence below.

The knight rode all day so he was ready for the huge battle ahead of him.

Varied Fluency 3

Fill in the space with the correct conjunction.

so

or

but

Lisa slept in, _____ she still got to school
before the bell.

Varied Fluency 3

Fill in the space with the correct conjunction.

so

or

but

Lisa slept in, but she still got to school
before the bell.

Varied Fluency 4

Circle the phrase which would come after the conjunction.

The children ran so

they were too late.

they were not late.

they didn't make it on time.

Varied Fluency 4

Circle the phrase which would come after the conjunction.

The children ran so

they were too late.

they were not late.

they didn't make it on time.

Application 1

Add the correct co-ordinating conjunction between the two parts of the sentence.

so

and

but

They will drive Sarah _____ Sam to the party after school.

He likes going to the field _____ he doesn't like it when it rains.

Application 1

Add the correct co-ordinating conjunction between the two parts of the sentence.

so

and

but

They will drive Sarah and Sam to the party after school.

He likes going to the field but he doesn't like it when it rains.

Application 2

Match two of the sections below to make one complete sentence with a co-ordinating conjunction.

she might win the race.

She doesn't like running, but

She is a good runner, so

she is not very good at it.

Application 2

Match two of the sections below to make one complete sentence with a co-ordinating conjunction.

she might win the race.

She doesn't like running, but

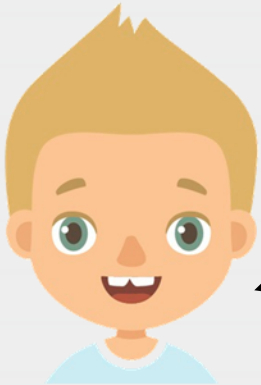

She is a good runner, so

she is not very good at it.

She is a good runner, so she might win the race.

Reasoning 1

Who is using the most suitable conjunction?

Pierre

The fans enjoyed the show so they all gave a standing ovation.

The fans enjoyed the show but they all gave a standing ovation.

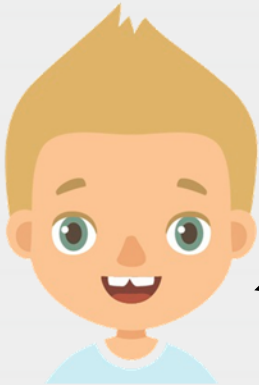

Niamh

Explain your answer.

Reasoning 1

Who is using the most suitable conjunction?

Pierre

The fans enjoyed the show so they all gave a standing ovation.

The fans enjoyed the show but they all gave a standing ovation.

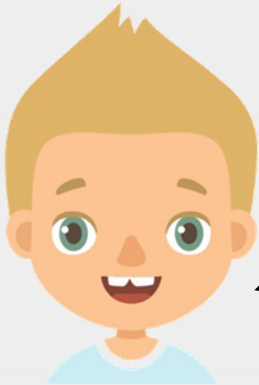

Niamh

Explain your answer.

Pierre has used the best conjunction because...

Reasoning 1

Who is using the most suitable conjunction?

Pierre

The fans enjoyed the show so they all gave a standing ovation.

The fans enjoyed the show but they all gave a standing ovation.

Niamh

Explain your answer.

Pierre has used the best conjunction because the fans are standing as a result of the show. Using 'but' does not make sense.