

Relative Pronouns

Task 1: Pronouns.

Sort these pronouns into the correct place in the table.

hers	his
which	who ours
mine	theirs
that	whom
whose	yours

Possessive Pronouns

Relative Pronouns

Task 2: Relative Clauses.

Fill in the missing relative pronoun in each sentence and then underline the relative clauses.

1. The hooded woman, knocked on the door, was actually friendlier than she seemed.
2. The spider, had been hiding under the log, sprang towards the fly.
3. The children wanted to buy fifty chocolate bars, were sickly sweet and full of sugar.
4. I don't like the alien has a bright blue nose.
5. The dog had a fluffy tail was wagging wildly.
6. The cat, nap had been interrupted, hissed loudly.

Task 3: Relative pronouns and relative clauses.

Write the most appropriate relative pronoun in each sentence.

1. She couldn't ignore the feeling she had in her stomach.

2. I sent a tub of slime to my niece lives in Argentina.

3. The man to I gave the shark repellent is a surfer.

4. Jim knows a man sister works for a very famous celebrity.

5. I am moving to Jupiter, is where my family originally comes from.

Relative Pronouns

Answers

Task 1: Pronouns.

Sort these pronouns into the correct place in the table.

hers	his
which	who ours
mine	theirs
that	whom
whose	yours

Possessive Pronouns

hers, his, mine,
ours, theirs, yours

Relative Pronouns

that, which,
who, whom,
whose

Task 2: Relative Clauses.

Fill in the missing relative pronoun in each sentence and then underline the relative clauses.

1. The hooded woman, who knocked on the door, was actually friendlier than she seemed.
2. The spider, which had been hiding under the log, sprang towards the fly.
3. The children wanted to buy fifty chocolate bars, which were sickly sweet and full of sugar.
4. I don't like the alien that has a bright blue nose.
5. The dog had a fluffy tail that was wagging wildly.
6. The cat, whose nap had been interrupted, hissed loudly.

Task 3: Relative pronouns and relative clauses.

Write the most appropriate relative pronoun in each sentence.

1. She couldn't ignore the feeling that she had in her stomach.

2. I sent a tub of slime to my niece who lives in Argentina.

3. The man to whom I gave the shark repellent is a surfer.

4. Jim knows a man whose sister works for a very famous celebrity.

5. I am moving to Jupiter, which is where my family originally comes from.