

Your football team are in the finals against the reigning champions.

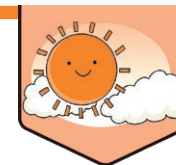

It is your birthday on a school day and there isn't time to open all your presents before school.

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

It is the first session of Cooking Club after school today and you have never been before.

You had a new and very different haircut done at the weekend and now it is Monday morning.

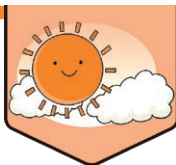

Your friend has brought in a photo of their new puppy. You have always wanted a dog.

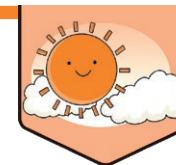

Your mum has put a baby photo of you on Facebook and lots of your friends have seen it.

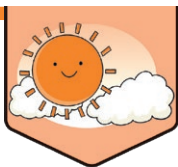

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

It is Sports Day but you cannot participate because you have your leg in a cast.

There is a new child in the class and they have been asked to sit next to you.

Your pet cat is quite poorly and is off to the vet with your dad today.

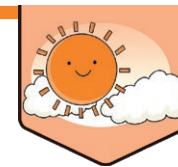

It is Healthy Eating Day at school and there is going to be lots of new food to try.

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

It is Open Morning at school and you have been asked to show some parents around.

You have been left out of a game at playtime and one person in particular has been quite mean.

You're going to a friend's house for tea after school and they have a new pet tarantula.

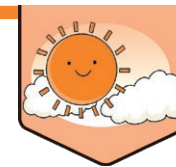

Your friend is off ill today and you were meant to be singing a duet in the choir together.

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

There is an important maths test today and you have been finding the lessons very tricky recently.

Yesterday, someone started a rumour about you really liking another person in your class.